From Our Pastor...

Advent is a time of expectant watching and hopeful waiting, a time of eager anticipation and prepared readiness. Jeremiah announces that “the days are surely coming.” And Jesus warns that “there will be signs.” As the church, we ready ourselves for Christmas, remembering the birth of Jesus, all the while anticipating the fulfillment of Jeremiah’s prophecy, “at that time (God) will cause a righteous Branch to spring up, and he shall execute justice and righteousness in the land.” And as we remember the birth of Jesus, we also stand guard and watch for “the Son of Man coming in a cloud with power and great glory.”

Advent hope is grounded on the promise of God, anticipated through our worship and reflected upon our attentiveness to God’s word. We know how, when, and for whom to watch because we have heard God’s promise and we remember and attest to the faithfulness of those who witnessed the birth of Jesus and followed in his way. We wait with the assuredness that God shall deliver upon that which God has promised: “the days are surely coming.” We also watch with a particular viewpoint beyond the fears and forebodings written upon the ways of the world: “God will cause a righteous Branch to spring up.” And we stand guard for the execution of “justice and righteousness in the land.”

Our Advent participation suggests that we are ready and willing to submit ourselves to God’s promise and to live our lives under the cosmic and universal Lordship of Jesus Christ. Our Advent participation shall reveal our trust that God’s promise is manifested and shall be fulfilled in the coming presence of Jesus Christ. And our Advent participation asserts that we shall not be “weighed down with dissipation and the intoxicating worries of this life,” but we shall be alert to God’s reign as it draws near.

Advent asks of us: shall our values and dreams be shaped by the promise of God incarnate in Jesus Christ or by the schemes devised on Wall Street and Madison Avenue? Are we looking for a good deal at a bargain price or are we allowing ourselves to be embraced with the promise of life in God’s hands? Do we expect a future that is merely the summation of even the best of our efforts or shall we anticipate a time to come that bears the marks of the crucified One and yet rises from the dead and returns in the embodiment of grace and mercy for his gathered people?

“The days are surely coming!” How shall we “read” the signs? How shall we discern the times? Will we be able to “see” the arriving presence of Jesus bringing to fulfillment God’s promise or will he simply be remembered from a story beautifully told but some two thousand years past? Shall we be adventurous bearers of expectant hope in the promise of God as fulfilled in the arriving presence of Jesus Christ or shall we cling to past memories and a benign continuation of what already has been? How shall God find us this Advent: alert and ready for who and what is to come or sluggish and weary from where we have been? With eager anticipation what shall we seek: a festive rehearsal of Christmas as an act of mere remembrance or a joyous song led by a choir of angels that announces the arriving presence of Jesus who changes the present by revealing the future salvation and the execution of justice and righteousness?

Wait, watch and be ready! Advent is here and Jesus is on his way!

Blessings,
Pr. John Yost

Community Meals

New Parish Council: The following members of First & 4 Bells will serve on the Parish Council: Lee Spangler, President, Gary Girton, Secretary, Deanna Billow, Drew Christy, Jeff Mensch & Diane Shuck, members at large.

First Lutheran Council: Special thank you for the dedicated service to outgoing council members: Jeff Crossland who served as Secretary and Janet Shoemaker.

Welcome to new 2017 Council members: Jane Moore & Tanna Stenger and Logan Mensch, Youth representative.

The following is a list of First Lutheran's Council members for 2017 and the committees they are chairing:

Deanna Billow, Outreach, Service & Stewardship; Harry Boyer, Christian Ed.; Gary Girton, Youth; Liz Loss, Fellowship & Recreation; Jeff Mensch, Finance; Jane Moore, Finance; Bill Musser, Worship & Music; Barb Randecker, Staff Support; Tanna Stenger, Outreach, Service & Stewardship, Dave Weaver, Property and Logan Mensch, Youth.

The Community Meal Committee is looking for a few good folks to help serve meals on the first Saturday of each month. We begin preparing the meal at 9:00 and are usually done by 1:00. You can come for an hour or 2, or stay the whole time. We serve between 30 and 60 people each month. This is a great way to help reach out to our community. Your help would be greatly appreciated. Please Contact Libby Loss @966-1606 or Sue Jows @ 966-3644 if you can help.

January meal will be held Saturday, January 7th.

Christkindl Events

Christkindl 2016 Friday Ham & Green Beans Meal will be served at First Evangelical Lutheran Church on Friday, December 10th. Once again, we will be serving our "German" (Pennsylvania Dutch) style Ham, Green Beans and Potatoes, along with authentic German bread, applesauce and German Apple Cake. The last few years we have served roughly 400 people and have given proceeds of approximately $2,000.00 to church programs and needs. Thank you for your help. Sign-up sheets are on the bathroom door in the hallway or contact Deanna Billow @ 570-490-1180.

A German Bake Sale will be sponsored by the Youth Group. Please stop by and support the Youth with their fundraiser. The bake sale will be held Thursday evening through Saturday.

Altar Flowers

There has been a change in florists for the remainder of the year and will continue through 2017. The florist will be Steins Florist from Lewisburg. The cost for fresh flowers will now be $40.00 for both vases. The altar committee has decided since the price continues to rise, we are going to have seasonal silk arrangements made to use for Sundays when there is no sponsor. You will still have the opportunity to place fresh flowers on any Sunday you wish. We do ask that if you sponsor fresh flowers for a Sunday, it is your responsibility to take the flowers after church and deliver them where you wish.

The 2017 Altar Flower chart will be hung by the week of December 18th. You must sign up for the weeks you'd like to sponsor in 2017. No sponsor information will be transferred automatically from 2016.

The 2017 offering envelopes will be placed in your mailbox the week of December 11th. Please stop by to pick them up. If you are not currently receiving envelopes and would like a box, please contact the office.
